

BADGES OF THE ORANGE COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT

The badge of the Orange County Sheriff's Department has taken many forms since it was first worn in 1889. And now, for the first time anywhere, the history and traditions behind these badges are revealed in a commemorative book now available for pre-order. All sales will support the planning and construction of the Orange County Sheriff's Museum and Education Center.

Scheduled for release in Fall 2007, this book details a previously unknown aspect of the Orange County Sheriff's Department. The 118-year history of our badges is profiled with brilliant full-color, larger than life-size photographs, along with their descriptions and the fascinating stories behind them. More than 70 badges are covered, from those issued to regular sworn deputies to badges worn by special deputies, reserves, and law enforcement agencies which merged with OCSD. The history of the department's patches, medals, and other uniform insignia is detailed as well. Designed to appeal to law enforcement personnel, historians, and collectors alike, this one-of-a-kind book is being offered for a limited time only. Prices and ordering information can be found on the back of this flyer.
